

"Loved Tonight" Lyrics

Written by Marcy Each

Verse 1

I know you think your dreams / packed their bags and ran away

I know you think the sun / lost its fight with cloudy days

But you know nothin' grows without the rain

Heaven knows the winds are gonna change

Chorus

You are loved, loved / loved tonight

Loved tonight / loved tonight

Let me be the moon / that lights up your sky

Honey you are loved tonight

Verse 2

So come on take my hand / let's go looking for those dreams

Let's climb above the clouds / and find a front row seat

Of the sun rising in the East

Let it shine on how much you mean to me

Bridge

When you see through your tears / to watch the morning rise

I'll still be holding you / so let those teardrops dry
