

"Not Lying There" Lyrics

Written by Marcy Each and Jennie Lee Riddle

Verse 1

The rain can't wash away the tears
As you place your flowers on the ground
Your heart's as numb as your hands are cold
You feel alone though there's people all around

Verse 2

You kneel and whisper "I'll miss you"
Oh you wish that you could fly away
But soon and very soon the clouds
Will roll back and no longer hide his face

Chorus

Your love's not lying there / Your love's not lying there
Soon you'll dance again
You'll be singing / singing forever and a day
Your love's not lying there / Your love's not lying there

Verse 3

So take those daisies from the grave
Braid your hair and wear 'em like a crown
Lift up your eyes and turn your gaze
Watch and wait 'till you hear that trumpet sound

Bridge

It won't be long / 'till y'all can run
And since and dance once more

© 2015 Marcy Each. All rights reserved.